Village Board Balks On Giving Power Co. Fifty Year Franchise

Village Attorney Says Time Is Unfair to Other Utility Co.

For what length of time should a utility franchise be given by the village?

That is the problem before the Village Board which was asked by the Public Service Co., subsidiary of the Commonwealth Edison Co. Tuesday to give it a franchise for operation in Antioch for 50 years.

Village Atty. E. C. Jacobs told Mayor Murrill Cunningham and the village trustees that in view of the fact that Antioch is granting the Illinois Bell Telephone Co. a franchise for only 25 years it would be only fair to limit the power company to the same length of time.

Trustee Bernard N. Osmond countered with the remark that Public Service Co. had been above board in announcing that the longer time would permit it better borrowing power for future expansion.

The matter will be taken up at a later meeting this month and a decision given then. The contract is similar in many respects to the one now existing.

Mayor Cunningham announced that the gas franchise will be up for renewal in 1965.

Ted E. Kaptain, manager of the Willow Dale Dairy asked the board to give consideration to the extension of water lines to the area of the dairy and asked the probable cost of the hookup. The dairy now uses the sewer system. He also said that a slough west of the plant is a potential health hazard as a breeding place for mosquitoes and that its present 1 1/2 feet of water endangers the lives of children who have been playing around it.

In other business the board received plans for lighting of the parking lot; gave the Antioch Fire department permission to use the (continued on page 5)

Mrs. Olcott was born at Long Prairie, Minn., Dec. 29, 1889, and spent most of her life in the vicinity of Zion and Waukegan. Her marriage to George Olcott took place in 1954 in Waukegan.

The Rev. Stephen Liddicoat of the United Protestant church at Grayslake was in charge of today's service. Burial was at East Fox Lake cemetery.

Easter to Attract Large Crowds to Churches; Schools Close Until Tuesday For Holiday

Antioch area churches have announced Good Friday and Easter services which are expected to attract large numbers.

Holy Week now in progress has seen special church services which have increased the spiritual life of the people leading up to the climax of Easter which is the heart and basis for Christianity.

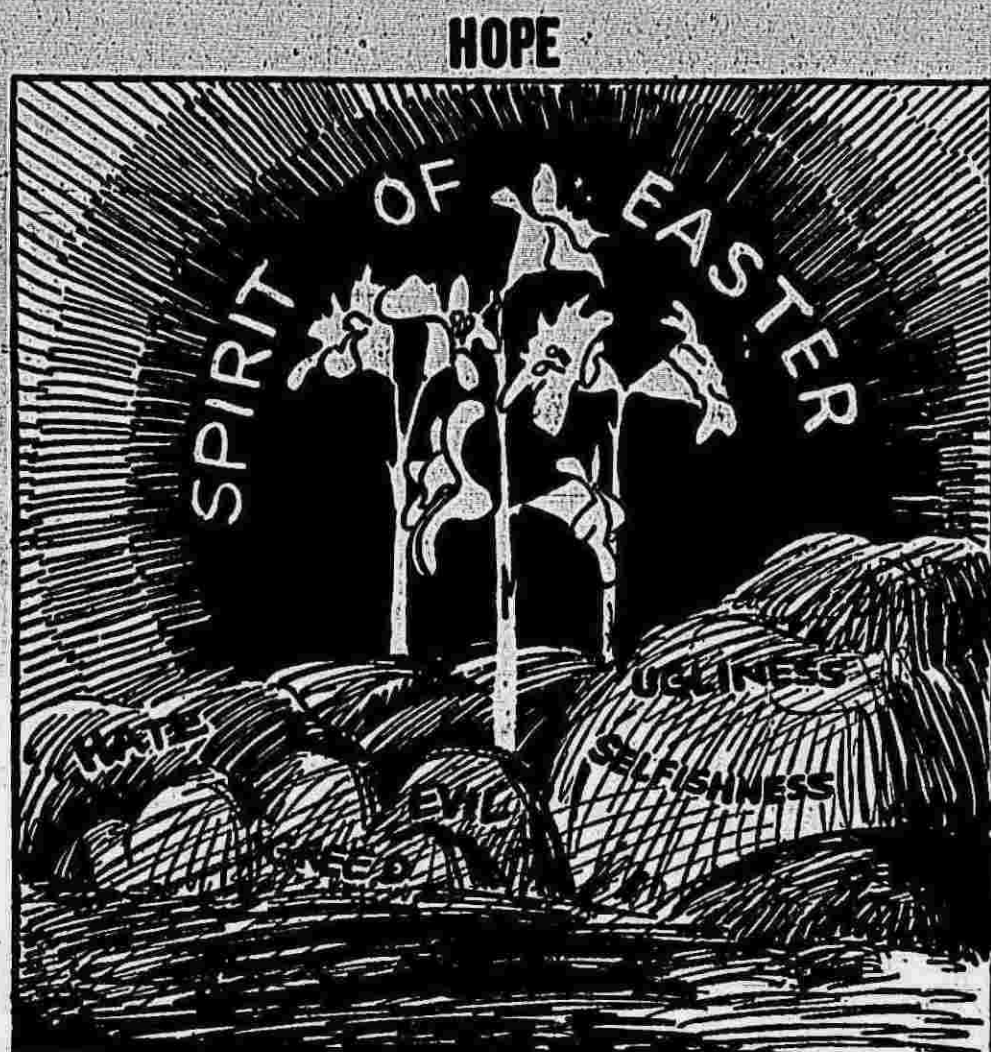

Historically it is based on the time of the Jewish Passover which is still the important religious day to those of that religion.

Antioch public and parochial schools were closed today until next Tuesday so that the religious holiday may be celebrated by the children.

Services announced for the Methodist Church for Sunday by the Rev. Wallace Anderson are:

Worship services at 8 a. m., 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. with Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.

The sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed at 8 p. m. today and tomorrow night (Friday) (continued on page 4)

Antioch High Sequoits Open Baseball Season With Grayslake Rams

Good Practice Weather Prepares Coach Leon's Men For Game Tuesday

With eight lettermen among the 17 candidates for the Antioch High School baseball team this year, and with the best season weather-wise for the squad to get into shape, the Sequoits will be well prepared for the opening game of the season here Tuesday, Coach Larry Leon announced.

The squad has had more than a week of outdoor practice to get in condition for the season—all this in contrast to last year when cold and wet weather gave them but one day of preparation.

The lettermen are Seniors Richard Jonas, Al Meyer, and Pat Roach; juniors Bill Jarvis and Ray Temi; sophomores Don Pyles, Dick Gudgdon, and Bernie LaBrose.

While some of the squad members will play a dual role on the team, there is some depth to the positions. The starting lineup is uncertain. Coach Leon will have Pyles and LaBrose, sophomores, Pete Zalatoris, a senior, and Chip Eberman, a sophomore on his pitching staff; Rich Jonas as catcher; Bill Jarvis and Jim Tully, juniors, at first base; Dick Gudgdon and Ken Stepien, sophomores, and Ron Stam, a junior, at second; Al Meyer and Russ Cote, juniors, at shortstop; Don Pyles and Russ Cote at third base; and in the field, Pat Roach, senior; Ray Temi, junior; Chip Eberman, sophomore; Bob White, Bill Tasker, and Tom Schissler, junior.

Open dates by reason of the fact that Lake Forest does not have a baseball team have been filled with games with Libertyville, and on May 20, Wilmet here.

Penalties for Fighting, Disorderly Conduct, and Peddling Upped to $200

An attempt to bring Antioch's "miscellaneous offenses" laws up to date with adequate penalties to make the policing more effective was achieved Tuesday night by the Village Board with the passage of an ordinance extending the limit of fines from $50 to $200.

As can be observed in the legal notice printed in detail elsewhere in this paper, the ordinance affects disorderly conduct, gathering of disorderly crowds, fighting, posting bills on public property without permission, soliciting or peddling without consent or invitation, placing advertising matter in or on parked cars, and indecent publications.

Village Atty. E. C. Jacobs answered the request of the board for an ordinance penalizing the lack of driver's license, saying this is a state law and regardless of a local ordinance, fines for such must go to the state.

Plan Softball League For Antioch Area at Meeting Held Tonight

A league of teams playing 16-inch softball will be formed in Antioch tonight at a meeting scheduled by Dr. Richard A. Carlucci for 8 p. m. in the cafeteria room of Antioch Township High School.

An effort to present information about the organization will be made and completion of the league accomplished next week at a time to be announced later.

Dr. Carlucci appeared before the Antioch Board of Trustees Tuesday night and asked whether it would be possible to put up lights and use the Little League ground for the league's games played at night.

The board appointed a committee to confer with the Little League officials on the matter.

Dr. Carlucci said that the Little League is perfect so far as dimensions is concerned. He said some of the adults who will participate in the games, are those who sponsored the Little League.

Seven teams in the area backed by and formed of civic groups already have been formed, and Carlucci said that he is receiving aid and instruction by the Waukegan-North Chicago Recreation Board on how to form and operate a league.

Anyone wishing to play on or sponsor a team please call Dr. Carlucci at Antioch 1461.

Rosecrans Area Votes On Incorporation as Newport on April 26

Newport township, the only township in Lake County without an incorporated community, may get one before long.

County Judge Minard E. Hulse has set April 26 as the date on which an area of 1,200 acres in the vicinity will vote on incorporation. Sixty-six property owners signed the petition. They have asked that the village be named Newport.

The area embraces Newport Community Consolidated School District 11, and 20 acres jutting onto Broyle Elementary School Dist. 16.

Rosecrans is near the intersection of Rtes. 173 and 41.

Reason for the incorporation is not given, but there are reports that the area wants to get ready for the influx of new residents which is expected when the new toll road which ends there, goes into use.

Moose Lodge Plan Royal Baby Contest For Antioch, May 11

The Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose of Antioch will stage a Royal Baby contest at 3 p. m. Sunday, May 11 or in event of rain on the following Sunday, May 18. The parade will be from Lake and Main street to the bandstand in the park.

The contest will be open to girls and boys from 1 to 4 years of age. A king and queen, prince and princess, duke and duchess will be chosen.

Parents may register their children at the Antioch Moose Lodge on Main street any Saturday or Sunday from 2 p. m. until closing time.

Town Meeting Levies $13,800 Under 1957; Approves New Garage

Cut in Both General and Welfare Budget Reduces Levy to $32,500

A levy of $32,500, which is $13,800 less than that of last year was voted at the Antioch town meeting yesterday in the Antioch village hall. Twenty persons were present.

The reduction was accomplished by a levy of $19,500 in the general fund, which was $7,000 less than 1957, and the general assistance fund of $13,000 which was $6,800 less than last year.

The appropriation was more than the total, but this is to permit legal emergencies if necessary, and the money available will be only that which comes from the levy.

The electors approved construction of a building to house the township highway equipment. Eight thousand dollars which was the surplus from the township tax collector's office last year is available for the cost of construction, Supervisor Lloyd Murrill said. Just where and when the building will be erected is not now known, but Murrill said that the township has been in consultation with Antioch village officials over a village site east of the Soo Line track.

Lotus Woods residents sought road improvements in their area near Grass Lake and were told that they could not legally qualify for the cost.

Red Cross Gifts at Halfway Mark, Mayor Praises Organization

The Antioch area Red Cross fund drive reached the halfway mark this week on its way to the $1,000 mark, Mrs. Leslie Sorensen, chairman announced.

Volunteers for the various areas in Antioch township have been named, and hope was expressed that the people will give generously, and maintain the disaster relief fund that is necessary.

Mayor Murrill Cunningham of Antioch praised the American Red Cross at Tuesday night's village board meeting when he told of the fine work it did in the tornado stricken area of Missouri where his relatives were either killed or injured last year.

"The Red Cross provided new homes for the people and in addition gave them paid credit at the stores so that they could obtain new-house furnishings to start their homes again. I'm all for the Red Cross he said.

Village to Oppose Soo Passenger Train Plan

The Antioch Village Board and the Chamber of Commerce will oppose any effort of the Soo Line railway to end all passenger service to the Village. While no opposition will be made to the abandonment of two of the four trains as now proposed by the railroad before the Wisconsin Commission, the Village Officials and business men will oppose elimination of Antioch as a stopping place for the remaining two trains, should it come up before the Illinois Commerce Commission.

The Soo Line, so far, has asked for curtailment of service in Wisconsin as indicated in an ad published in the Antioch News last week.

Organization Formed To Advertise-Promote Antioch, Lake Region

An organization to advertise and promote the Antioch Lake region was formed at a meeting of business men last Thursday night at St. Ignatius' church.

By mutual consent of the persons present the organization was named the Antioch Lake Region Association, whose sole purpose will be to advertise and promote the Antioch Lake region.

"This council is to coordinate the efforts of all persons interested in the advertising and direct promotion of the Antioch Lake region," said Joseph Patrovsky, the newly elected president. "It is hoped that each business man and interested group or club will give its support to the association as there is a distinct job to do and it can best be handled by a group of this kind."

Officers chosen besides Patrovsky were Charles Wertz, vice president; Howard Gaston, secretary; and William Brook, treasurer.

Patrovsky said that it is not the purpose of this organization to supplant any existing promotional group or to encroach upon any of their functions.

One of the items brought before the group was that of getting proper identification of the Antioch area on the new toll road. This problem was studied and a committee has been contacted the proper persons to help pave the way for directional signs at proper crossings.

Another general meeting will be held sometime next week and President Patrovsky said it is felt that any and all business and professional or any other interested persons attend for their own benefit and advancement. Notices will be sent out as to the time and place.

Antioch Swimming Pool Plans Big Season; Smouse to Be Manager of Extended Program

Smouse to Be Manager of Bigger Program

The Antioch Lions Club Community Service Corporation has now completed plans for the third season at the Antioch Aqua Center.

Kenneth Smouse, Antioch High School teacher, and last year assistant manager of the Pool will be the new manager, replacing Warren Polley, who as Assistant Principal at the high school no longer has time for this activity.

Plans call for the pool to open Memorial Day, May 30, and registration for swimming classes to be the following week.

Manager Smouse has developed plans for an active program of summer water recreation. He has an experienced staff of qualified Red Cross life guards and water safety instructors. Headed by his assistant Pat Koffman, this group plans an expanded program of swimming classes for all ages, 6 to 100, to be held each week day morning. Two courses will be offered in each of the following classifications: Beginner, intermediate, swimmer, and advanced swimmer.

Red Cross certificates and emblems will be issued for satisfactory completion of each course. Ad-

Confusion on Voting Supervisor Tells Electors to Vote At Precinct on Registration Card

A record vote for primary elections may be cast in Antioch and Lake Villa townships next Tuesday as the Republican and Democratic parties choose their candidates for the general election. There is much interest.

Confusion in voting places was caused by adding of an extra precinct in Antioch township and the subsequent faulty recording of registration at the county court house, Supervisor Lloyd Murrill said.

He cleared the mixup by instructing all voters to vote at the polling place to which their registration card is designated regardless of whether they live in that precinct or not.

"Your names will be on the registration records there and nowhere else," Murrill explained.

"After the election come to me and we will straighten it out and correct the error," he said.

Polls will open at 6 a. m. and close at 6 p. m. at the following polling places:

- No. 1—Antioch fire station
- No. 2—Antioch Village Hall
- No. 3—Lotus School House
- No. 4—Grass Lake School
- No. 5—Channel Lake School
- No. 6—Emmons School House.

Three Hot Contests
Highlighting the campaign this year are the contests in the Republican primary for sheriff, representative to the assembly, and for clerk of the probate court.

The Antioch Township Republican Club, meeting last night at the American Legion Hall, continued to maintain its position that because of its youth it will not endorse any candidate in this campaign. County G.O.P. chairman Robert J. (continued on page 5)

Funeral Today for Loretta Braeckman, Petite Lake Resident

Mrs. Loretta Braeckman, 51, of Petite Lake died at 5 a. m. Tuesday at Victory Memorial hospital following a brief illness.

Mrs. Braeckman was born June 11, 1906 in Chicago and lived in that city until nine years ago when the family moved to this community.

Relatives living are the husband, John A. Braeckman, Sr., three sons, Robert J. of Elk Grove Village, Ill.; William R., Chicago; and John A. Jr., of the home; two daughters, Miss Dolores Braeckman of the home, and Mrs. Joan Gebhardt, Antioch; and 10 grandchildren.

The funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. today at the Strang Funeral home with the Rev. Edmond Hood of St. Ignatius' Episcopal church in charge. Burial is in Grass Lake cemetery.

vanced swimmers may also qualify to take junior and senior Red Cross Life Saving.

Plans also include a class of teen age girls in synchronized swimming (water ballet) which will be taught by Mary Shepard, who has experience in this field.

Last summer 520 children and grown ups registered for swimming, and as a result of instruction received, 250 qualified for Red Cross certificates in the various divisions.

The Aqua Center is operated by the Antioch Lions Club as a non-profit organization for the benefit of the people of Antioch and the surrounding area. The pool is open to the public seven days a week with qualified Red Cross Life guards on duty at all times.

A charge of $3 will be made for each course of ten one-hour lessons given twice a week for five weeks.

An individual season pass may be purchased for $10. A family pass good for the parents and two children under 16 costs only $20.00 for the entire season. Additional children in the family cost $2.00 each.

This issue of the News carries a cut-out application form for season passes to the pool, for your convenience.

Our Sunday Schools

National Sunday School Week is again being sponsored by the all-faiths group, the Laymen's National Committee, Inc. The dates chosen are April 14 through 20, and the Committee asks everyone to join in furthering their theme: "OUR SUNDAY SCHOOLS—FIRST LINE OF DEFENSE."

Within the walls of our Sunday Schools the religious thoughts of our young ones are shaped. It is here that the home teachings are co-ordinated with early religious training.

Let us make every week a Sunday School Week and lead our youth in rightful ways.

Kite Flying

Kite flying season is just around the corner, and the Pacific Gas and Electric Company has issued a cartoon-style booklet containing "safety-first" advice. Here are some of the "nevers": Never fly a kite with metal in the frame or tail; never use a line made of metal or containing metal; never fly a kite in the rain or near electric power lines; never run across streets or highways while flying kites; never let a kite go over radio or TV aerials.

The Motorist and Moral Responsibility

Is the motorist involved in an automobile accident, although legally absolved from guilt, still free from all moral responsibility in the same accident?

Might not his attitude toward driving have prevented his making an evasive maneuver that, although he was legally right in pursuing his regular course of action, would have prevented the accident in which another human being may have been destroyed?

We, as a God-fearing nation, hold ourselves up as the epitome of culture and progress, yet annually we exact a toll of human life and suffering which would make the most bloodthirsty savage more than hesitate, and yet—cultured, intelligent, and moral as we are—are heedless of this problem, more than heedless, apathetic. We concern ourselves with saving the lives of people stricken with disease and spend billions of dollars and millions of man-hours seeking the cure of these diseases, yet the greatest single killer in our nation today is not disease, not war, but Traffic Accidents. There is no vaccine, no quick inoculation which can cure this evil. We as a people expect government to protect us, yet this is far from the answer. Certainly authority can materially reduce the slaughter by making the motorist drive more carefully from a fear of being denied the privilege of driving. And there are certain drivers that can only be controlled in this manner, but the great majority of people involved in traffic fatality accidents—and accidents is a poor word for it for they are not really "accidents"—are people who are ordinarily law-abiding citizens.

The question is: Are we a nation of moral people or a nation of rationalized morality? We, as a social or culture group, are quick to condemn infidelity, dishonesty, or other violations of our mores, yet we sympathize with the motorist who breaks the Christian precepts of tolerance and civil obedience. This may be due to a feeling that speeding is such a minor transgression and speed limits are not moral obligations and that a violator should be excused readily and even sympathized with. Let Us Examine This Reasoning.

Agreed that the act of violating a traffic law in itself does not constitute an injury to another, either financial or physical. Traffic regulation differs from criminal regulation in one respect—traffic laws are based on the prevention of an act which is POTENTIALLY harmful to society.

If motorists would accept this fact and realize that careful driving is a moral act, then the greatest force available in the reduction of traffic fatalities would be in play. If, and this is speaking ideally, every motorist would accept their moral responsibility for safe driving, then truly, automobile collisions could be called accidents—and would become rare occurrences.

Incentive Is the Key

The production of natural gas is in no sense a public-utility type operation. There are no protected markets or exclusive franchises. There is nothing resembling a guaranteed profit or return. Indeed, searching for gas and oil is one of the most hazardous of all enterprises. It is also one of the most intensely competitive—the Federal Power Commission estimates that there are more than 5,000 separate producers.

Yet, as a result of a Supreme Court decision handed down in 1954, the FPC is required to regulate the price of natural gas at the wellhead, if that gas goes into interstate commerce.

The result of this is obvious—it imperils the future supply of gas to non-producing states, and thus goes straight against the interest of all gas users, existing and potential. It is widely recognized that remedial action is needed. The President, for instance, has called for legislation insuring gas consumer protection, incentives for supply development, fair and competitive producer prices, end of utility-type controls, and encouragement of sales to interstate markets.

These objectives are all covered in proposed legislation which would eliminate the damaging utility-type controls. At the same time, it would give the FPC very broad powers to see that the price charged by a producer does not exceed the reasonable market price. Thus, the consumer is protected.

This country wants and needs an expanding natural gas industry. That means the producer must have the incentive to do the big and costly job that lies ahead.

Non-Inflationary Stimulus Needed

Two leading Democratic Senators—Magnuson of Washington and Smathers of Florida—have introduced a measure which would repeal the three per cent excise tax on freight transportation and the ten per cent passenger transportation tax. The relief would apply to railroads, motor carriers, airlines and waterway carriers.

Senator Smathers has clearly and compellingly explained the need for this legislation. He said: "Today's recession is caused, largely, by the buying public's lack of confidence. . . . What is needed is a non-inflationary stimulus to our economy. . . . We believe that the repeal of these taxes would provide that spark."

"Transportation affects the pocketbook of every one of us. It makes up 21 per cent of America's gross national product. Few products of the farm, the mine or the factory are consumed where they are produced. All that we eat and all that we wear is carried in public transportation—usually several different times—before reaching the ultimate consumer. And each time these products are carried by public transportation a 3 per cent tax is paid. It is easy to see how this pyramiding of costs adds to inflation."

This type of a tax cut on all transportation should result in lower prices and encourage an increased activity on the part of consumer purchases. Loss of Federal revenue would be relatively small . . . far outweighed by the beneficial effects of this important business stimulant." The Senator added that small businessmen would benefit especially from repeal of the freight tax. They cannot afford to operate their own fleet of trucks, as can the large business, and must rely on public transportation.

It is highly significant that, according to Senator Smathers, 13 of the 15 members of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee are co-sponsors of the tax repeal measure. The case for it is overwhelmingly strong.

Library News

New Memorial Books at Library

Three excellent books for children have been given to the Antioch Township Library in memory of Mrs. D. H. Minto. Andrew Lang's edition of "The Arabian Nights" contains "The Forty Thieves," "Sinbad the Sailor," "Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp," and many of the lesser known tales of Scheherazade. "Walt Disney's Worlds of Nature" is culled from his twelve amazing "True-Life Adventures." Hundreds of dramatic pictures of animals, plants, birds and insects invite the reader. Young nature lovers will delight in this fine book.

Several years ago a new venture in publishing, the hard bound magazine, was launched under the name "American Heritage." The magazine articles were beautifully illustrated with scenes from American history. "The Golden Book of America" was adapted from the pages of "American Heritage" for young readers.

All of the above books are now available at the Antioch Township Library.

Petite Lake News

This is a new column for news items from around Petite Lake. It will appear as often as enough tidbits of interest are gathered together to make a fair sized column. We think it would be nice if it appeared every week, but that will be up to you. If you have something to report that you think is of interest, don't hesitate to call one of the following people: Mrs. Earl Beese, 532-W-1; or Mrs. Walter Johnson, 405-M-1. So off we go with our first attempt.

The Melvin Reichards of Resthaven Terrace have a new addition to their family. A very little "fella" born March 16 at Little Company of Mary Hospital, Chicago. He weighed in at 3 lbs. 14 oz. and is named Ronald, William. The Reichards have two others sons, Paul, age 15, and Melvin, Jr., "Skipper," age 2 years. Our Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kempf of Kempf's Beachwood Resort saw their daughter, Mary Jane, wed to Mr. Ludwig Zankl on March 15 at a lovely ceremony in the Methodist church at Lake Villa. Many friends and neighbors attended the wedding and reception which was held in the American Legion hall, Antioch. The young couple will reside in Chicago.

The welcome mat is out for the new owners of the former home of Mrs. F. J. Arnold. They are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ernsting and their family of five children; Susan, age 10, William 9, Linda 7, Larry 3, and baby Elizabeth 6 months. Mr. Ernsting is a building contractor.

Mrs. Leslie P. Gilmore was taken to the hospital this past week in rather serious condition. Mr. Gilmore is the principal of the Lotus School and they have five small children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Westgard of Resthaven Terrace reported back home after two and a half months in Florida with "Scant Florida tans." They tell us that they only had ten nice days while they were there.

A belated welcome to the new daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Martin. She is named Joann and was born February 18. That makes five girls for the Martins.

A last thought for you—get out and vote on April 8. We at Petite Lake should be very conscious of this with so many of our neighbors being candidates. We all know State Representative W. J. Murphy who resides at Petite Lake and who is running again in this election. He is close to our hearts. Our committeeman, Mrs. Helen Burke of Indian Point, who is really a committeewoman, and the only one in Lake County, is up for re-election. She is also running for the office of Representative Committeeman, which is an office to which three persons are elected. It is their job to fill any vacancy of office caused by the death of a candidate between the primary and Fall election. Tony Palusis of Petite Lake Highlands is also in the race for the job of Committeeman.

Springtime Tours

If you'd like to get away but can't think where to go—listen to what a travel agent from another country has to say:

"I'd tell visitors to America to go right to Detroit, tour that city's big industrial plants and buy themselves an auto. Then drive over your magnificent countryside, taking a month or two and seeing everything . . . parks, factories and industrial museums. . . ."

Most of us can't take a month or two. But most have cars, and the thought about industrial tours is good—especially in early spring before the weather turns warm. Leading travel expert Carol Lane points out a few top tours in the country:

Detroit: automobile plants, The Edison Institute, Greenfield Village.

The Northwest: lumber plants, dams and hydro electric facilities.

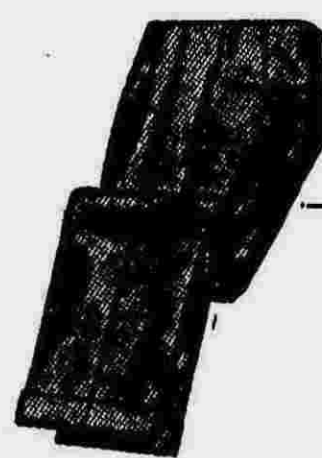

Florida: industrial farms" and Winter Haven's Citrus Museum.

New England: Saugus Ironworks Restoration and Colt firearms museum.

Southwest: oil refineries, copper

Visual Problems Plagued Mankind For Centuries

NEW YORK—With professional eye-care so readily available in our modern world, it's easy to forget that for centuries people had to struggle along with little or no true scientific guidance.

Homer was one of the famous men who went blind. Nero is believed to have been nearsighted, since he's said to have watched gladiatorial contests through an emerald, which may have been ground to act as a lens to improve his distant vision.

Milton succumbed to blindness, and like many other old-timers, undoubtedly hastened its onslaught by blundering attempts to check it. After his right eye lost its sight when he was 4—he tried a number of queer remedies on the left one, but it, too, failed him three years later.

The famous 17th century diarist, Samuel Pepys, wrote anxiously of his deteriorating vision. He was probably nearsighted and overtaxed his eyes with too much close work in his youth, often by flickering candlelight. He consulted a number of surgeons, most of whom knew little about vision, and then went to an eyesight specialist, who told him to give up his habit of using a magnifying glass. As Pepys' vision grew worse, he tried various corrective measures, including the use of odd tubular cardboard spectacles, which he imagined brought him some help. His once neat shorthand eventually became disorderly and at last he concluded his diary, with the explanation that he expected to be blind soon. Although he never did completely lose his sight, it was tragic that he suffered so much trouble which a modern vision specialist could correct without much difficulty.

Sputniks Boosted Education Here

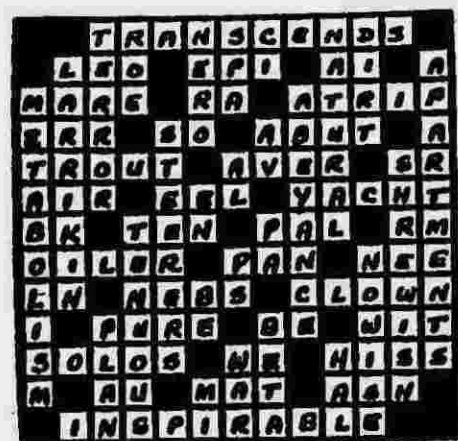

NEW YORK—When the Russians put an earth satellite into orbit they performed a major service for American higher education. Dr. Lewis Jones, president of Rutgers University told the Tenth Annual Barnard Forum considering education at the college level.

The president of New Jersey's State University made the following points:

1. The Russians awakened America to its education shortcomings and have demonstrated that they not only believe in the importance of education but are willing to pay for it.

2. The United States must make certain that educational opportunity is provided not only for those who are able to pay, but for those without adequate financial resources.

3. Both public and private colleges are needed in the American system of higher education. The important measure of a college or university is not where it gets its money but how good it is.

"May we thank you for having the opportunity of hearing your musicians."

Director Alexander of the Ypsilanti State Hospital stated:

"We would like to thank you for your visit and presentation of the music program for the patients of the Ypsilanti State Hospital on March 22. The program was enjoyed very much by everyone, and we daily get comments from the patients expressing their appreciation."

"If you are ever in this area again, please be sure and let us know as we would appreciate a return visit from your group."

Superintendent David Morton wrote:

"In behalf of the patients and staff of the Dr. Norman M. Beatty Memorial Hospital, I wish to thank your group very much for the excellent program presented here last evening. north half of the Broadway parking lot for storage of visiting fire equipment at the County Firemen's Convention May 24, and to block off the northern part of Broadway for the contests.

A committee comprising Trustees E. F. Vos, John Blackman, and Bernard Osmond was appointed by President Cunningham to investigate the possibility of the use of the Little League diamond by an adult league for night games in 16-inch softball.

April 27 was established as the date for the change to daylight saving time.

President Cunningham suggested that the area at the front of the fire station and rescue squad station on Main street be converted from parking place to lawn and that dead trees be removed.

"We now have a public parking place and this area would look better as a lawn," he said. No action was taken on the proposal but it will be given serious consideration, especially as to the removal of the trees.

The Salvation Army was granted Friday, June 13 as tag day, but when the request for a tag day for the grade school band on July 5 was taken up, no trustee would make the motion in view of the reported opposition.

C. P. Maples reported on his attendance and that of an assistant at a state water and sewer school, and incidentally returned $20 of expense money that was not used. He said his men had rodded out 400 feet of sewer, and that the water works pumped 4,720,000 gallons of water in March.

Emil Ehner reported that heavy loads are now prohibited in the north subdivision because of street conditions.

There was no report from the police department.

An audit of the village books will be made.

A meeting later in the month will be held to take care of the appropriations for next year and set license fees.

Erwin L. Pofahl, 65, Formerly of Salem, Twp. Dies at Woods Hospital

Erwin L. Pofahl, 65, of Route 1, Box 198, Kenosha, Wis., died Monday in the V. A. Hospital, Woods, Wis. (Milwaukee). He was born March 10, 1893 in Salem Township and lived on a farm there (now the site of Angel's Restaurant) for 25 years. He was married to Grace Van Duzer on Dec. 12, 1928 and they had moved to Kenosha about a year ago.

Mr. Pofahl was a member of the First Methodist Church of Kenosha, the Paul Herrick Post No. 21 of the American Legion and a past member of the Schultz-Hahn Post at Salem. He was a veteran of World War I, having served 22 months.

Mr. Pofahl was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pofahl and is survived by his widow, Grace; two brothers, Ray and Ralph, of Kenosha, and two sisters, Mrs. Lillie Higgins of Kenosha and Mrs. Lina Higgins of Pleasant Prairie, Wis.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Friday at Strang's Funeral Home with the Rev. Lee Smith of the First Methodist Church of Kenosha officiating. Burial will be in Liberty cemetery, Salem township.

Record Vote Expected...

Milton attended the meeting and urged the men to get out the vote. He also called for a healing of wounds after the primary battle and a unified party at the general election.

The club prepared for continued activity through meetings the first Wednesday of each month at the American Legion hall. The next one will be on May 7. Speakers last night were Rep. W. J. Murphy, native son, Bernie Drew, Waukegan, candidate for representative, Frank Mustra and A. J. Nelson, incumbent, candidates for probate clerk.

Norris Froelich and Robert H. (Mickey) Babcox continued to battle down the line to the very end for sheriff. Group bargainings were in evidence.

Antioch township has three candidates in which she is interested. They are Rep. W. J. Murphy, Petite lake, who yesterday was rated by the Illinois Agricultural Assn. of which the Farm Bureau is a member, as "excellent." W. C. Petty, Antioch, unopposed for county superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Helen I. Burke, for representative committee, 31st district.

As precinct committeeman, Mrs. Burke is opposed by Rudolph M. Strametz.

Asian Flu May Be More Deadly Than We Believed

CHICAGO—Statistics uncovered by five Denver physicians shed new light on the seriousness of the influenza epidemic which reached its peak last October.

The number of Denver deaths following influenza indicated that "there may be a higher mortality associated with this disease than previously believed," they said.

They studied 23 deaths found at autopsy to be due to acute respiratory inflammation. The deaths occurred between Oct. 3 and 17, 1957. Although these are "relatively few" deaths, their number is eight times greater than the number of respiratory disease-caused deaths usually seen in the Denver coroner's office for the month of October.

Various types of pneumonia were associated with all the Denver deaths.

The study of the 23 "unexplained, unusual or unattended" deaths showed that the individuals died after a brief illness, ranging from one to seven days. Autopsy showed excessive inflammation of the larynx, trachea, and bronchus. In a few cases, the early symptoms suggested severe respiratory disease, but in most the symptoms were mild.

In 16 cases no treatment was given; in the others, it was of an unknown type or consisted of aspirin, cough syrup, or antibiotics.

Ice Hockey Grows In Popularity

WASHINGTON—Ice hockey, little known outside Canada a generation ago, has soared to international popularity.

As evidence of the game's success, more than a dozen nations—including the United States and the Soviet Union, entered the 1958 world championships in Oslo, Norway.

Hockey may have developed from a crude sort of stick game played by ancient Persians. A form of field hockey became popular in medieval Europe where the game got its name. "Hockey" is a corruption of the old French word "hoquet," meaning a shepherd's crook.

But modern ice hockey is unquestionably a Canadian invention. Though the precise place and date of its origin are disputed, students at the McGill University played the game in the 1870's on the St. Lawrence river. They used canes, brooms and branches to bat a hard rubber ball back and forth.

The first players had one notable trouble. The ball bounced away and play had to stop until it was retrieved.

'Fire Hoses' On Sun Spray Atom Particles

WASHINGTON — The sun has big "fire hoses" shooting into space. When, as the sun rotates, one of them happens to spray the earth with stream of infinitesimally minute atomic particles, the result is a big magnetic storm, which causes disruption of radio communication through wide areas of the world and a great display of the aurora or northern lights.

Such storms can sometimes be forecast, it now appears, by observing the intensity of certain visible-light lines—especially one green line emitted by highly-ionized iron atoms—in the spectrum of the corona, the "crown" of pearly white luminescence which always surrounds the sun but can be seen by the naked eye only during the brief moments of solar eclipses.

The brightness of this green line on the sun and the occurrence of certain magnetic storms on the earth are probably associated, according to a report from the Harvard College Observatory.

Auto Warning Device Would Alert Drivers

CHICAGO—The hazards of driving in fog, rain, snow and darkness could be greatly reduced by means of a small radio device behind the grill of your car.

This is the opinion of Richard B. Schulz, program development coordinator in the electrical engineering department at Armour Research Foundation of Illinois Institute of Technology.

Schulz believes that the nation's highway toll could be cut considerably by means of a "proximity warning device" which would let the driver know of approaching vehicles out of his range of vision.

Bell Experimented

WASHINGTON — Dr. Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone, was experimenting with jet-powered flying propellers, which he called "winged fly-wheels," more than a decade before the Wright Brothers made their first successful flight at Kitty Hawk.

Bowl 'Em Over

By JOHNNY KING
Star of "Bowling Star" TV Series

THE PUSHAWAY

The pushaway has been termed the "trigger" of the approach. When properly executed, it gives you the smooth effortless start you require and helps to put the other phases of your footwork in proper motion.

Many either carry the ball too long or drop it too soon. If the ball is carried too long, you will find yourself ahead of the ball at the foul line. By dropping it too soon, you will cause your shoulder to sag, which in turn will force you to "slide arm" the ball and possibly drop it at the foul line instead of pitching it over and out on the lane.

In order to maintain proper balance throughout your approach remember to push your ball straight out and down, never upward, guiding it with your non-bowling hand, as you begin your stride to the foul line. This motion should be a smooth, easy, natural one with no conscious effort. Don't start with a sudden jerk. Keep your elbow in against your body as you start the pushaway in a loose, relaxed manner. PHS

"The way you get experience quickly is to start looking for something else."—Barry Sullivan.

On April 22, 1921, two Marine Corps pilots arrived in Washington, D. C., after a 4,842 mile round trip flight to Santo Domingo, the longest unguarded overwater flight to date.

Abused Cigarette Was Once Held As Sacred Object

WASHINGTON—The now frequently condemned cigarettes were once sacred objects among Indian tribes of the Southwest.

They were placed by priests in caves as votive offerings. Thousands have been found in cave shrines throughout Arizona.

The once sacred nature of the cigarette—none of the present popular brands of radio advertising, of course—is established by the findings of several archeologists during the past half century, according to the Smithsonian Institution's Bureau of American Ethnology.

Practice of making cane cigarettes survived up to quite recently among the Pima Indians of Arizona. From a reed growing along the banks of the Rio Gila they made a smoking tube the length of the first two joints of the index finger. Around the middle of this was tied a miniature belt woven from cotton and agave fiber, with fringed ends.

These tubes were regarded as male or female, according to certain marks placed on them. Before departure of a war party these tubes were filled with tobacco and smoked toward the four points of the compass, to the tribal fetishes, and to all the objects that were to be used in the campaign. Each warrior smoked his own cigarette.

At the close of the ceremony the tubes were deposited in shrines dedicated to the war god. These generally were in caves. Hundreds of these tubes were found in fireplaces during excavation of the great Indian "apartment house" at Casa Grande, Arizona, in 1907. The surfaces were charred but the objects still were distinguishable. Large numbers of similar tubes have been found in caves through the Gila and Salt River Valleys.

New World Had Lost 'Golden' Age

WASHINGTON—There probably was a lost "golden age" in aboriginal New World culture. Art in aboriginal America may have reached its heights in the jade carvings of Mexico and Central America. This was an art which, by and large, has remained unknown to the rest of the world.

The creations achieved by the Indian carvers rival and surpass those found elsewhere in the world. Such is the conclusion of the late Dr. William Foshag, former Smithsonian Institution curator of geology, in a report on the mineralogy of jade articles recovered from Guatemalan archeological sites.

The artistry displayed in the Guatemalan jade figures, says Dr. Foshag, "presupposes a long and ancient artistic development during a civilization or culture of which we know very little. When the missing chapters in the history of Central American cultures are eventually revealed it will more than likely be found that the development of the art of jade carving will not only parallel that of China but be essentially contemporaneous with it."

Proper Diet Helps Teeth Resist Decay

CHICAGO—The best preventive for tooth decay is the development of teeth with a "high resistance" to decay, according to the American Medical Association Council on Foods and Nutrition.

The child's diet during the formation period should consist of a "generous selection of foods from all the basic food categories." They should be carefully cooked to preserve the original nutrient values.

An ample supply of vitamin D (obtained mainly from vitamin D fortified milk and sunshine) should be provided daily.

A highly desirable factor in overall diet planning for the development of caries-resistance is the growing availability of fluoridated water supplies. Small amounts of fluoride help prevent tooth decay.

After the teeth are fully formed and have erupted in the mouth, the same attention must be paid to the diet. In addition, the eating of sticky, high-carbohydrate foods that adhere to the teeth should be restricted.

Fire Prevention Week Scores Hit In Ankara

NEW YORK—The U. S. Air Force in Europe reported that officials of the Turkish Government encouraged the observation of Fire Prevention Week in Ankara last October. It was the first observance ever held there and was so successful that Lieutenant Governor Basri Ozpinar is planning to introduce a bill in the Turkish Grand National Assembly which will create a Turkish Fire Prevention Week, coinciding with the American campaign.

The Ankara observance was highlighted by a fire-fighting demonstration.

TV MEDICAL LORE

Television is the greatest entertainment media yet, but it is also educational if we like the idea or not. About this comes a report from the medical field.

Programs dealing with medics in hospital scenes, plays about doctors, nurses, patients and so on have made people conscious about themselves in connection with symptoms. They're being able to describe them more accurately to their doctors; not only their most recent symptom but the events leading to their pain or sickness. In fact, one Doctor reports that a patient referred him to a TV program and about one of the latest strides in medical science. People will even inquire about drugs that are new and advertised on TV. This is wonderful.

We have notices, too, that people are becoming more and more conscience about good TV viewing. They want bright and sharp pictures with sound that's clear and crisp. By phoning Antioch 1454 they have found an organization with the electronic equipment to do this job best. You'll like our customer relations at ECONOMY TV on route 173, 1 1/2 miles West of Antioch.

Today's MEDITATION

The World's Most Widely Used Devotional Guide

The Upper Room

© THE UPPER ROOM, NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Read John 14:1-7.

"And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also." (John 14:3, RSV.)

A Minister friend was conducting a revival far from home when he received this brief telegram from his sister: "Daddy with Christ, 10:30 A. M. Thursday." Their beloved father had left them for another world, but there was no feeling of regret or doubt, only the affirmation of victory.

This simple message expresses features of the Christian belief in the immortality of the soul. It affirms that those who live in Christ never really die, but live on after this present life. We have this promise from Jesus' own lips: "Whoever lives and believes in me shall never die."

The message contained in the telegram affirms also that when we leave this world we do not go to some strange, foreign place. We go to be with Christ. Did not the resurrected and living Lord say He would go to prepare a place that where He is there we may be also?

Prayer

Our Father, we humble ourselves in prayer before Thee. By Thy grace, enable us, we beseech Thee, so to live in Christ here that we will find ourselves at home with Him in the life to come. This we ask of Thee, our Father Almighty, through Jesus Christ, Thy Son and our Redeemer. Amen.

Thought for the Day

To be alive forever is to be with Christ.

Attend FHA State Officers Meeting

On March 25 and 26, Sharon Norfleet, editor of "District V", and adviser, Miss Eileen Deetz, attended a meeting at Muscoda, Wis. The meeting was the third Future Homemakers of America State Officers and Executive Council's meeting. It was held at the Muscoda High school.

Plans were made and completed for the FHA convention to be held at Green Lake on June 2-7. Besides holding a general council meeting, there were also committee meetings. These committees were for the purpose of planning of the convention. The committees which Miss Deetz and Sharon Norfleet of Salem Central worked on were: Seating of Delegates, Resolutions, Style Show Revue, and "Teen Times."

The state officers' meeting was significant because it was held during National FHA Week. Salem Central's FHA Chapter observed FHA Week in the following manner:

March 23—All FHA members attended the church of their choice.

March 24—Dress-Up Day

March 25—Big and Little Sister recognition

March 26—Recognition of FHA officers and initiation of Freshmen

March 27—Red and White Day

March 28—Recognition of teachers.

WARNING—The U. S. Census Bureau estimates that by 1975 American women will outnumber men by more than 3.5 million.

The U. S. Navy Fuel Depot, now in operation at the fast-growing air-sea base being developed at Rota, Spain, is capable of caching 50 million gallons of petroleum products ranging from jet aircraft to steam warships fuels.

TAX FACTS

The initiating process for the formation of a park district is the filing of a petition with the county judge. The petition must define the territory and name the proposed district.

After receiving the petition, the county judge orders an election to determine the question and to elect 5 park district commissioners. Electors are notified of the election by the county clerk giving 20 days' notice in a newspaper published in the proposed district, or if none be published therein, then in a newspaper of general circulation in the area.

If the proposition carries, the five persons elected as park commissioners shall meet within 30 days after the declaration of the result of the election and decide by lot the term for which each shall hold office. Two shall serve for six years; two for four years; and one for two years, respectively, from the date in the next odd year an election would otherwise be held.

As is true for other local governments, the principal tax levied by a park district is for the general corporate fund. For many years, previous to the Park District Codification Act of 1951, there were many types of park districts, such as Submerged Land Park Districts, Pleasure Driveway and Park Districts and Township Park Districts. Such districts have various tax rate limits, with township park districts having the lowest rate limit. In 1955 the General Assembly passed an Act which makes it possible for all park districts then in existence, by referendum, to come up to the same ultimate limit, 10c per $100 valuation. All new districts created since the effective date of the 1955 Act (July 11, 1955) commence with a corporate fund limit of 8c, but with the right to increase this limit to 10c by a later election.

Park districts have additional taxing powers. With voter approval, they may levy a tax of not to exceed 4c per $100 of valuation for recreational fund purposes. Also, by a successful referendum, they may levy an additional corporate tax of 4c.

Thus, park districts, totalling approximately 144 in Illinois, fit into the definition of special districts. They are a separate entity, with a governing body and taxing powers.

U. of I. Food Report

March 31 - April 5

CHICAGO — Metropolitan area food costs are sprinkled with contradictory situations this week.

The University of Illinois consumer service weekly survey of live, wholesale and retail outlets shows indications of the ethnic and nationality factors that also help to establish costs.

Religious observance and custom as well as seasonal market situations prominently influence some prices. Fish items and fresh Boston butt roasts, for instance, move higher as religious groups observe holidays. Contrarywise, price concessions are made for seasonally popular ham, lamb and turkey.

Reflecting also the promotional possibilities, along with a seasonally softening market, eggs are lower cost for Easter.

Cattle moved to the yards in the

THIS WEEK'S U of I MARKET BUY

Seasonal situations rather than newer supply conditions establish bargain buys in meats. Eggs are lower for Easter. Processed dairy products could follow the lower price lead of butter. If government decision to lower support standards on April 1 holds, cheese will be cheaper. Produce market has little of the normal spring look despite small arrivals of strawberries and cantaloup.

EASTER MARKET VALUES

Meats: Turkey—Capons—Lamb leg roasts—Ham.
Dairy: Eggs—Butter—Ice cream—Cream cheese.
Produce: Sweet potatoes—Asparagus—Carrots—Green onions—Valencia oranges—Grapefruit.
Graceries: Peaches—Cranberry sauce—Pears—Applesauce—Green beans—Tuna fish—Pasta.
Frozen Foods: Strawberries—Cauliflower—Sea foods.

largest three day volume since January. Better fed beef continues to price higher. Lower grades cost a little less. Small wholesale declines for such beef and pork will not be reflected in retail price tags.

Processed dairy products could follow the lower butter price (down fully 6c per pound for 90-score). Anticipated government decision to lower price support standards is expected to result in cheaper cheese. Milk prices will be unaffected.

Produce is either very high cost, or very cheap with the entire market having little of the normal spring look despite small arrivals of strawberries (California) and cantaloup. Expect price declines for green onions, lettuce (slightly), asparagus, cabbage, Texas carrots, Florida and South Carolina radishes, sweet potatoes. Continuing low prices prevail for Florida oranges. Higher prices anticipated for peppers, cucumbers and celery. Strawberries and cantaloup are coming in high priced.

The U. of I. also notes that U.S. D.A. reports national food consumption up 8 per cent and food prices up 5 per cent generally over a year-ago.

This week's list of food values is abundant and varied for the Week ending April 5.

Meat values include turkeys, capons, lamb leg roasts, ham. Dairy bargains are eggs, butter, ice cream, cream cheese. In produce it is sweet potatoes, asparagus, carrots, green onions, Valencia oranges, grapefruit. The grocery list includes peaches, cranberry sauce, pears, applesauce, green beans, tuna fish, peas. Frozen food values are strawberries, cauliflower and sea foods.

Antibiotic "Beers" May Be Weapon Against Cancer

Washington — Antibiotic "beers," the culture filtrates resulting from the manufacture of life-saving drugs against infectious diseases, may hold the secret weapon against cancer, it was reported today by the Health News Institute of New York.

A massive screening program under the direction of the Cancer Chemotherapy National Service Center of the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda, Md., in cooperation with the pharmaceutical and chemical industry, as well as that of the academic and research institutions, has screened and evaluated thousands of synthetic compounds in addition to the antibiotic "beers." To date over 50,000 materials have been submitted for screening.

"Significant anti-cancer activity has been discovered in over 100 of the antibiotic 'beer' materials submitted by the pharmaceutical industry, according to officials of the National Service Center," the HNI said. "A good many of these 'beers' are now under active fractionation by the pharmaceutical industry."

The program represents an expanded empiric approach to supplement the basic research approaches in the cancer field, the HNI said. The screening program is an exploration of promising chemical, biological and pharmacological leads against animal tumors, and even in human tumors grown in animals. The activity sought is one which would cause a tumor to stop growing, or even to waste away.

Since the beginning of the joint program between industry and government in May, 1956, over 20,000 synthetic chemical compounds and over 30,000 antibiotic culture filtrates have been submitted. More than half of the synthetic compounds screened were not originally developed for medicinal purposes.

The program involves testing materials against three types of mouse tumors in accordance with standard procedures set by the National Service Center. It requires 100,000 laboratory animal tests per year, using about 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 animals. About 1,000,000 of the mice are from highly inbred strains, which has required great expansion of facilities. The total number of mice produced for sale prior to the institution of the screening program was about 300,000 per year. The tests are conducted in eight service laboratories under contract to the government.

At present some 100 industrial companies are participating in the program under government contract. Approximately one-third of these are pharmaceutical companies. The companies underwrite the entire cost of the isolation, preparation and fractionation of materials submitted. The National Service Center supports the evaluation of these materials.

In addition to the companies aiding the program under government contract, six pharmaceutical companies are conducting screening of compounds for possible anti-cancer activity on their own, the HNI said. To date these six companies have screened thousands of materials.

An in-plant program, designed to back up the screening program and to furnish a follow-up of the active fractionation and evaluation of the materials screened, has been instituted under contracts let to four pharmaceutical firms. An ambitious program to develop methods to devise short cuts for expediting the program is under way. The methodology project is under contract to five pharmaceutical companies.

An important aspect of the program is the screening of steroid hormones — potential anti-cancer agents. In addition there is a hormone evaluating program. To date, about 400 steroid hormones have been screened or evaluated under this $1,000,000 section of the program.

The budget for the entire screening operation has been raised to $12,000,000 this year, as against $4,500,000 in fiscal 1957.

A vital phase of the project, aside from the screening and evaluation in animals, is the clinical testing program. Eighteen clinical groups are working with 178 medical institutions from hospitals and university medical centers, studying 44 materials. At present some 2,000 patients are under study.

In the fall of 1957 a new phase, the Surgery-Adjuvant Program, went into effect. This enlisted the co-operation of surgeons who are studying a number of labeled chemical compounds in connection with cancer surgery in 47 hospitals.

THE STANCE

The stance is a bowling fundamental of prime importance. Always choose a stance that is a comfortable and relaxed one. As a general rule, use a stance that feels natural and produces the best results.

First, determine your starting position. The distance you stand from the foul line should range from twelve to fifteen feet and depends on the number of steps, the length of stride, the glide and the speed with which you make your approach. By going through the steps in your approach a couple of times, you can determine what is the best distance for you.

Most bowlers recommend that the body be moderately erect, leaning partially forward, with the knees bent. But as in the selection of a ball, the beginner should try a number of stances and select the one which is most comfortable and natural. Short people generally prefer to stand more erect so that they can get the advantage of a full backswing while taller people tend to bend forward from the waist slightly to cut down on backswing.

Slip your fingers into position, supporting most of the weight of the ball in your non-bowling hand. Face the pins squarely with your eyes on the target. With knees slightly bent and feet slightly apart, you are now ready to begin your approach.
